Levy of advertisement tax for permitting hoardings does not amount to double taxation: HC

The Karnataka HC has held that there is no conflict between the power to levy GST under the GST Act and the power of municipal corporations in the State to levy advertisement fee or advertisement tax under Section 134 of the Karnataka Municipal Corporations Act. The Court said that the incidence of advertisement tax or advertisement fee is on the license granted by the corporation permitting the petitioner to put up hoarding or make use of the hoardings, and has nothing to do with supply or service or goods by the petitioner to its clients to put up their advertisement
